

joseph

BASED ON: Genesis 37-39, 41-50

Jacob, who was renamed Israel, and his 12 sons now lived in the Promised Land. Out of all of his sons, Israel loved Joseph the most and made him a beautiful coat with long sleeves. When Joseph was 17, he helped his brothers tend the cattle- and reported to his father anything they did wrong.

Joseph's brothers grew to hate him because he was their father's favorite. They hated him even more when he told them that he had dreams about the future where he saw all of them bowing down to him!

One day Joseph went to check on his brothers and they grabbed him, ripped off his beautiful coat, and threw him into a deep hole. Then the brothers decided to sell Joseph to slave traders who were passing by on their way to Egypt.

They tore up their brother's coat, soaked it in goat's blood, and brought it to their father saying, "We found this in the field- it's Joseph's isn't it?"

Israel examined it and said, "Yes, this is my son's coat. A wild animal must have attacked and eaten him." He began to weep saying, "I will mourn my son's death until the day I die!"

Meanwhile, the slave traders sold Joseph to a man named Potiphar, the head guard for Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. Potiphar noticed that God was with Joseph and blessed everything that he did. So he promoted him, putting him in charge of his entire household and business.

Now Joseph was a young, handsome man, and Potiphar's wife began to desire him. She constantly pressured him to sleep with her. But Joseph refused, saying, "That would be a terrible thing and a great sin against God!"

One night after Potiphar got home, his wife told him, "The Hebrew slave you brought here tried to rape me."

Potiphar became furious and threw Joseph into the king's prison. But God gave him favor with the head of the jail. God was with Joseph, continuing to give him success in everything he did. Before long, Joseph was put in charge of the other prisoners and everything that happened there! God also gave Joseph the ability to interpret the other prisoners' dreams.

A few years later Pharaoh had some dreams that troubled him. In one of them he saw seven fat cows being eaten by seven thin cows! None of Pharaoh's wisest men could interpret what this meant.

One of the servants who had been in prison with Joseph told Pharaoh about his ability to interpret dreams. So Pharaoh had Joseph brought to him and asked, “Can you really interpret dreams?”

Joseph replied “That is beyond me, but God will tell you what your dreams mean and ease your worry.”

Pharaoh shared his dreams and Joseph interpreted them saying, “For the next seven years Egypt will have an abundance of food. This will be followed by seven years of a terrible famine that will spread over the land.”

The king was so impressed with Joseph that he put him in charge of everything in Egypt- second in power only to Pharaoh himself!

During the next seven years Joseph traveled throughout Egypt making sure that plenty of food was being stored up in each city. Joseph was only 30 years old at this time.

Seven years passed and the famine came, spreading throughout the world. People from all over the land came to Egypt to buy food from Joseph.

When Israel realized his family was running out of food, he sent his sons to Egypt. When the brothers arrived to buy food, they didn't recognize Joseph and bowed down before him. Joseph did not tell them who he was until later.

At first, Joseph was harsh with his brothers, even accusing them of being spies and putting them in prison. But later, after many meetings and two journeys by his brothers, Joseph finally revealed who he was saying, “I am Joseph, your brother whom you sold as a slave!”

The brothers stood there speechless- shocked and afraid! They never thought that Joseph could still be alive.

But Joseph spoke to them kindly and said, “Don't be afraid. God turned your evil into something good. He put me in this high position so I could save the lives of many people. Now I will take care of you and your families.”

When Pharaoh heard that Joseph's brothers had come, he invited Israel and his entire family to live in Egypt. He gave them a plot of his best land, plenty of food, and all new clothing!

So the family of Israel came to live in Egypt, escaping the drought and enjoying the blessings that God had given Joseph.

patriarch review

the covenant

God called _____ (Gen. 12:1) and made a profound promise, called a _____

Genesis 12:2-3:

"I will _____ and I will _____

I will _____, and you will _____

I will bless those who _____ and whoever curses you _____

And all the peoples on earth will be _____

God changed Abram's name to:

Gen. 17:3-5

He had 2 sons:

Gen. 16:11

_____ Gen. 21:2-3

Remember the sacrifice story?

He had 2 sons:

red and hairy

_____ Gen. 25:24-25

_____ Gen. 25:26

Summarize what happened when Jacob was cooking stew in Gen. 25:29-34:

Isaac was an old man and could not _____ (Gen. 27:1) He called for his oldest son, _____ (27:1)

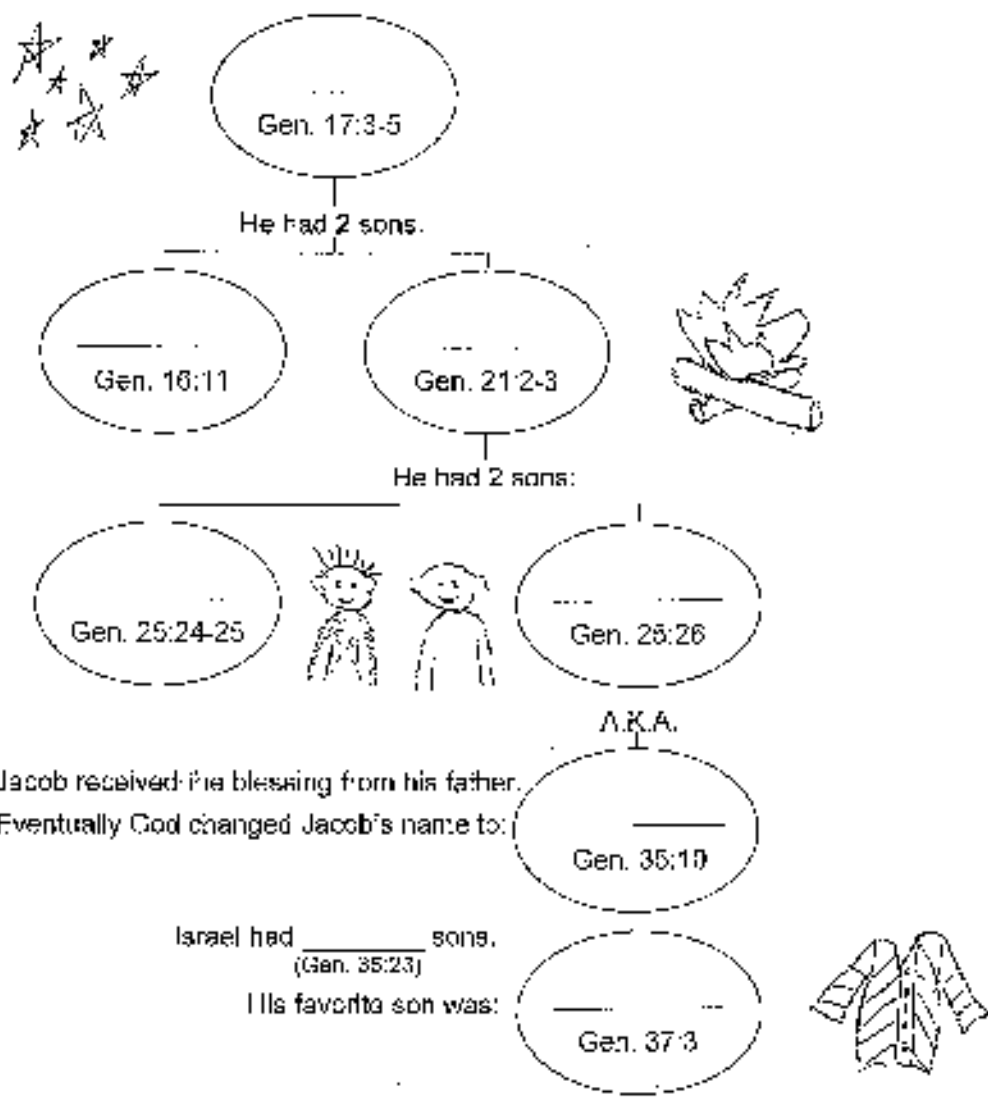

Isaac wanted give him _____ (Gen. 27:4).

Rebekah was listening and she favored Jacob.

What scam did Rebekah and Jacob pull in Gen. 27:5-17?

Over for more. Yippeel

Fill in the names again. See if you can do it without looking at the other side.

Session 8: Joseph

Make up work from January 24, 2010

Work with a parent or other adult on this make up work. Please return completed work at the next confirmation session. If you have questions please call Renee at 752-7434 x 16 or Pastor Naomi at 752-7434 x 15.

Name: _____ Grade: _____

NARRATE the Story

Together with a parent or guardian read the story as written on the hand-out. Listen to the words. Don't think ahead to what you've heard before. Rather, listen closely.

RETELL the Story

In 8-10 sentences retell the story that you just heard or read.

DIALOGUE about the Story

With a parent or guardian DISCUSS the following questions (you don't have to write your answers):

Name of parent or guardian working with: _____

What images came to mind when you were listening to this story?

...what did you see, hear, and smell?

What stood out to you from this story? What did you notice for the first time?

What questions did the story bring up? What did you wonder about?

What do we learn about Joseph's brothers from the story?

Name: _____ (page 2)

Why didn't Joseph's brothers like him?

What do we learn about Joseph from the story? What was he like?

List some of the difficult situations Joseph faced in this story:

How did Joseph respond in the difficult situations he faced?

Do you think his response was realistic? Was it helpful?

What was God's promise to Abraham? You can see the promise in Genesis 12:2-3.

How does God continue his promise to the Hebrews (Abraham's descendents) in the Story?

What does the story teach us about God?

Where have you seen God take a situation that seemed bad and turn it into good?

Signature of parent or guardian working with: _____

CONNECT the Story to your life

How does Joseph's life inspire you?

Do you like things in life planned out or more spontaneous?

When have you felt mistreated, but in the end God used the situation for your good?

